COULD F. H. A. TO HELP GIRLS AT STEVEN'S TRAINING CENTER

As one of this year's projects, the Future Homemakers of America of Gould Academy are going to collect items which the girls of the Steven's Training Center of Hallowell, Maine can use. These girls are between the ages of 9 and 10. They are not juvenile delinquents, but girls whose parents couldn't take care of them or didn't want them. They don't know what it means to have nice clothes or personal things. The F. H. A. girls of Gould are going to collect items the Steven's girls can use, and give them to these girls at Christmas. The F. H. A. girls are asking the townspeople to help. If there is anything you have but don't want and need please donate it to these girls. Below are listed a few things which these girls could use: toilet soap, nail polish, light color, and polish remover; dusting powder; hair spray; deodorant; hair rollers; all sizes; head bands; fancy hair clips or barrettes; home permanent kits (non curl and very loose curl); lipstick—light colors; shampoo; necklaces—suitable for girls 10-17; bracelets—suitable for girls 10-17; cameras; eyeglasses; record albums or single records; shower caps; head scarves; numbered paint sets; stationery and envelopes; mittens or warm gloves; Christmas wrapping paper, seals, ribbons, tags; batteries for transistor radios; stuffed animals suitable for girls 10-17; sleds and toboggans; lamps; musical instruments.

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE
The true spirit of Christmas is a priceless heritage of our Christian faith. The aura of wonder, the sense of awe and capture, the joy of gift giving and receiving, of carol singing and worshipping, of excitement, of secrets, and the aroma of mysterious dishes, of hearing the matchless story of Jesus' birth—all this produces an atmosphere laden with joy, love, and happiness. This is the Christmas spirit.

SPIKES - SLOAN
Miss Norma Jeanne Sloan became the bride of R. Lane Spikes, Nov. 12 at the home of the bride's grandparents, The Rev. Len Niles, Dunedin, Fla., officiated at the ceremony.

and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Edwin A. Sloan Jr., brother of the bride was best man. Donald H. Cross was usher.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tiered cake decorated with pink roses and topped with miniature bride and groom figurines. An arrangement of white chrysanthemums, crystal and silver appointments completed the decorations.

Assisting with the serving was Mrs. Ann Webb, who also kept the bride's book.

For their wedding trip, touring southern Florida and the West Coast, Mrs. Spikes wore a three-piece suit of blue wool knit with olive green accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Spikes attended the Bethel grade school and one year at Gould Academy. She graduated from Dunedin High School in 1954 and is a graduate of Pinellas Beauty College, Pinellas Park, Fla. She is now working at Angela's Beauty Salon, Clearwater, Fla. The groom is a graduate of Gulf High School, New Port Richey, Fla., and attended the University of Georgia. He is a General Contractor and builder in New Port Richey.

Mr. and Mrs. Spikes are now living in their new home in New Port Richey.

CUB SCOUTS

NEW BOOKS AT THE BETHEL LIBRARY

Adults—The Pass That Would Not Die, by Walter Lord. "It began as another of Walter Lord's exciting recreations of a dramatic moment in history—the crash of the Hindenburg, the story of the gas that erupted when Negro James Meredith enrolled in the University of Mississippi." "Turkey" by Desmond Stewart and the Editors of Life.

"At War in the Fields of the Lord" by Pat Matheson. The principal characters are some fundamentalist missionaries and a soldier of fortune, the plot concerns their fanatic effort over the fate of a primitive and dangerous tribe of jungle Indians.

Juvenile—The Secret of the Simple Code, by Nancy Paulkner. The month of August belongs, for Paul, a time of great frustrations, setbacks, and finally, triumph—as he and his crew found themselves on the trail of two desperate jewel thieves.

Key: "Merry Christmas Eve," by Edna Miller.

Happiness is Christmas and getting a Bulova!

At Christmas, there's no gift like a watch - and no watch like a Bulova. One reason: quality. No watch manufacturer in the world can match Bulova quality. Every Bulova must pass up to 3000 quality inspections before it leaves the factory.

MEIER - DAVIS

Mrs. Dorian May Meier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meier, of Leno, Mo., became the bride of Peter Seth Davis on Nov. 27th at Our Lady of the Pillar Church, St. Louis, Mo. The Rev. Valentine Bryan officiated at the 11 o'clock morning ceremony before an altar of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers. Afterwards guests attended a reception at Sunset Country Club.

The former Miss Meier and her father were preceded down the candlelighted aisle by Miss Geraldine Dotzler, Maid of Honor.

Mrs. Peter S. Davis

Among the bridesmaids were Miss Cheryl Meier, a sister of the bride, Miss Karen Coster, Miss Christine Obermeyer, and Miss Carol Quinlan.

The bride wore a gown of ivory tulle with a full skirt and a long train. Her hair was styled in a short, wavy bob. She carried a bouquet of white and pink flowers. The bride and groom were accompanied by their parents and several bridesmaids.

All of the brides attendants wore their length dresses of Van Gogh blue velvet, empire with small puffed sleeves trimmed in embroidered French ribbon. Matching headbands and bouquets of pink roses and white orchids completed their ensembles.

Mr. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis of Bethel, Maine, chose William Donohue, Randolph, Me., for his best man. Groomsmen were John Raski, Glasgow, Mont.; Robert J. Bates, Bangor, La.; Wayne Stenwyper, Wala Wala, Washington, all classmates, and Daniel Davis, a brother.

The newly wedded pair will live in St. Louis on their return from Florida. The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy and attended Maryville College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Gould Academy, and is attending Parks College, East St. Louis, Ill.

ROY A. NEWTON

Ray A. Newton of West Bethel died at the Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway, Wednesday, where he had been a patient for the past two and a half weeks.

He was born in Dixfield, March 25, 1884, the son of Fred and Hena Knight Newton. He married Edna Ford at East Dixfield, June 25, 1910. They celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary last June. Mr. Newton was past master of Jefferson Lodge, A.F. and A.M., Bryant Pond, and a former member of the Bryant Pond Baptist Church. At the time of his death he was a member of the Church of the Nazarene, Bethel. He started work in 1938 at the Stowell and Learned wool mill, Farmington Falls. Mr. Newton became associated with the Newton and Tebbets mill, West Bethel, in 1945 and was active there until his recent illness.

Survivors include his widow, Edna, and a son, Burton, both of West Bethel; three grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. A daughter, Tina May, died in 1923.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:00 p. m. at the Chapel of the Nazarene Church, Broad Street, Bethel, with Rev. Robert Jackson officiating. Burial will be at the Greenwood Cemetery, Dixfield. Visiting hours at the Greenwood funeral home, Vernon Street, Bethel, on Thursday and Friday evenings 7 to 9 o'clock.

GOULD S. A. C. TO SPONSOR STUDENT DANCE DEC. 11

The Student Activity Council of Gould Academy will sponsor a Christmas Holiday Dance Saturday, Dec. 11, for the student body. Chairman of the dance is the SAC vice president, Stephen Moore, of Crossen, Pa. Susan Brown of Bethel heads the committee for refreshments. Barbara McKnight, Rumford, who heads the decoration committee reports that they have obtained the services of Jim McElin of Melrose, Mass., in planning and directing special decorations on the holiday theme. The Patriots of Lewiston have been chosen by the music committee according to its chairman, Stan McKnight, of Rumford. The SAC plans a gala evening for Gould students to open their holiday season.

Quick Clean Laundromat

The light you see inside the new dryers while in operation is a purifying ultra-violet ray which insures you of a germ free wash. This is very important especially in public laundries because you don't know who used the machine ahead of you. Water has to be boiling to kill all germs and boiling water is too hot to do many fabrics. Also, it has to stay at boiling temperature many minutes to sterilize as much as the ultraviolet ray. These dryers are very economical to use. Try them and see for yourself.
